I & II Samuel ~ teacher: John Peles

Sanctuary

To many Christians, much of the Old Testament may seem obscure or irrelevant to life in the 21st Century. However, it is important for us to remember that "All scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness (II Timothy 3:16)." Thus, the books of the Old Testament contain truths that God intends for everyone, including modern Christians, to apply to our lives. In fact, Old Testament books such as I & II Samuel contain valuable lessons for everyday life because they demonstrate God's people at both their best and their worst – something to which we all can relate.

In our study of I & II Samuel, we are focusing on the events in the nation of Israel at the time of people such as Samuel, King Saul, and King David. As we study the scripture each week, our focus is on the following questions:

- (1) What are God's expectations for His people?
- (2) How does God relate to His people and how do we relate to Him?
- (3) What can we learn from the positive actions of God's people in the Old Testament and how can we apply this to our relationship with Him?
- (4) What can we learn from the negative actions of God's people in the Old Testament and how can we apply this to our relationship with Him?

Daniel ~ teacher: Shelli Prindle

Fellowship Hall

Incredible! When it comes to exact predictions of future events and prophecies of the coming Messiah, the book of Daniel is simply amazing! Not only does God demonstrate His power to foretell and superintend history through this book of the Bible, He also describes for us what the future will be like - through the coming Antichrist, into the Millennial reign of Christ, and to the eternal state of a New Heaven and New Earth.

Invigorating! When it comes to standing strong in a godless culture, the Holy Spirit gives to us through Daniel the courage that we need. We see Jesus continually and miraculously provide for His people - despite all discouragement and even hatred that comes from world powers.

Indescribable! Our mighty God is good beyond our understanding. Will you dive into His plan by studying this pivotal, prophetic, and powerful book of the Bible? You will never be the same!

Women's Sunday School Class ~ teacher: Janis Swope

Craft Room

The women will continue their study of "Cults and the Essentials of the Christian Faith." The New Testament tells the first century Christians that they must be wary of false teachers. That still holds true today! The best way to protect yourself and others from false teaching is to know the essentials of the Christian faith so that you will be able to discern the difference between the truth and a lie when it comes calling. We are taking some of our study material from the book "Essential Doctrines of the Christian Faith" by R.C. Sproul.
